FATHER NEAL DOW

The Central Figure at the International Temperance Congress.

AND THE RECIPIENT OF MANY HONORS.

The Work for Temperance Done in Maine, and the Old Cry that Prohibition is a Failure Refuted—The Progress Elsewhere.

The International Temperance Congress, PROHIBITION PARK, Staten Island, N. Y., June 4.—Gen. Neal Dow, the father of prohibition, was greeted by 10,000 enthusiastic admirers at the International Temperance congress which opened here yesterday. He occupied an arm chair at the right of the presiding officer during the morning, afternoon, and evening sessions, and showed by his quick appreciation of the points of the speakers that his mind is undimmed by the ninety years that have passed over his head. Prominent speakers and prohibition workers from many states and from abroad were present. Gov. Tillman of South Carolina, arrived during the afternoon session and was given a seat on the platform immediately behind two Catholic priests.

The Morning Session. At the morning session Wm. T. Wardwell, of New York, presided. Rev. Gregory, D. D., led the devotional service. Col. Alexander S. Bacon, president of the Sunday Observance society of Brooklyn, delivered the address of welcome. Addresses congratulating Neal Dow in his passing the nineteenth milestone were made by Aaron M. Powell, editor of the National Temperance Advocate; Prof. Samuel Dickie, chairman of national prohibition party; Susan E. Fessenden and Mrs. Ellen J. Plimney, of the W. C. T. U.; Hon. Samuel D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, and C. A. Everett, of St. John, N. B. Neal Dow made a brief response telling how thoroughly he appreciated the kind words of his friends and the encouragement they gave him in the work of his life.

Afternoon Session. Gen. Wager Swaine presided at the afternoon session. Rev. Fr. Niles, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., who came to take the place of the late Gen. Niles, was the first speaker. He was followed by Joseph Cook, of Boston, and of international renown as a lecturer on temperance. Dr. Cook, who is large of frame, large of voice and emphatic of utterance, said in part:

The house of lords, Mr. Gladstone says, must be ended or ended. The liquor traffic, this convention says, must be ended because it cannot be ended. My conviction is that this will be the keynote of the twentieth century. The work of Neal Dow has led to this. He has fought a good fight and even at 90 years of age he has not run his course. The truth that Maine has been transformed and transformed through the work of Neal Dow travels slowly; but the fact that the Maine liquor law is a failure travels with seven-league boots.

Rev. Dr. B. B. Tyler, of New York, read the formal address to Gen. Neal Dow. It was signed by the heads of the prohibition and temperance movements of this country and Canada.

Gen. Dow was given the Chatauqua salute when he rose to reply. During the first two or three sentences his voice trembled with emotion; then it grew steadier and was clear and emphatic. He dwelt on what had been done since he took up temperance work. He said in substance:

I don't feel that I have accomplished anything that entitles me to the honor which is done me to-day. No words can express the gratitude I feel for what has been said and done here. But perhaps it were best that I should tell of some of the work that has been done and the importance of the work yet to be done. There is no question before the people of this country or of any country so great as the liquor question; yet strange as it may seem there are many prominent men, many men of enlightenment, education and understanding who know nothing about the work of prohibition. I was once handed a slip of newspaper which announced that Edwin Smith had said that prohibition was a failure in Maine. My reply was that I hoped that Edwin Smith did not make such a statement for the reason that it is not true.

So far from being a failure in Maine, prohibition has been a very great success. At one time we had a great many breweries and distilleries in Maine. There is not one now, and there has not been one in many years. In Portland alone there were seven distilleries. There are none now. At one time cargoes of Jamaica rum were imported into the state. There are none now. It is true that liquor, in small quantities, is smuggled over the boundary. But liquor is not openly sold, and there is not one hundredth part as much consumed in the state as before the law was passed. A remedy for consumption that will cure ninety-nine cases in a 100 cannot be called a failure. [Applause.] An entire generation has grown up among us, and three-quarters of our people have not used a drop of strong drink since.

Speaking of other states he said that great progress had been made and there were many places where no liquor is sold owing to local option laws. Continuing, he said:

The liquor traffic has existed for fifty years by permission of Christian churches. Their members are masters of the situation. When they say: "Go and vote," the saloon will go.

Evening Session. At the evening session Gen. Thos. T. James, of New York, presided. There were addresses by Alexander Russell Webb, of the Mohammedan church, and Father Murphy, of the Roman Catholic church of Canada.

DURANT, Miss, June 4.—The Yazoo rapist, Ready Murdoch, was brought here and placed in jail by a deputy sheriff of that town to keep him from being hanged by a mob, but it was learned by them that he was here, and this morning at an early hour the jail was surrounded and he was taken back to the scene of his crime. The opinion is that he was hanged between this place and Yazoo City.

The Field Columbian museum, occupying the art building at the World's fair grounds, was dedicated Saturday afternoon. Will Have an Election.

The first step in the direction of an election this fall has been taken in this county by the Republicans in the nomination of a county ticket that is free from any reasonable objection. Every man is a good Republican, and every one of them has been faithful in fighting the battle of Republicanism, whenever soldiers were needed to advance or defend the principle of the party, and for these reasons every Republican candidate is entitled to the vote of every man who wishes to see the principles of Republicanism in the ascendancy.

We are approaching the day when the people should speak at the ballot box in no uncertain way, as to their opinion of the Democratic party, after it has demonstrated so effectively what it is, by over a year of absolute power. That speech to be effective must begin with the county ticket and be followed with the representative, senatorial, congressional and state tickets. Every man who desires the success of the Republican party will do himself and his desires injustice if he skips any man on the ticket. He simply gives aid and comfort to those in power, whose threats and imbecility have resulted in prostrating the business of the country, and thrown everything out of harmony to the great annoyance and pecuniary loss of the people, by voting only a part of the ticket.

This fall the logical voter will be the man who does not scratch or split his ticket, and he will be the only man who will have no regrets after the polls have been closed. The man who votes to put any man in office who, after he gets there, will contribute from his salary to retain a party in power that has shown that it cannot conduct the affairs of government in the interests of the people, votes against his own prosperity and his own happiness.

Not long since the Democratic state central committee, over the signature of Chairman Delos P. Phelps and Secretary Theodore Nelson, appealed to President Cleveland to turn Republicans out of office and put Democrats in, to further the interests of the Democratic party and Democratic principles.
If turning out Republican postmasters and making Democratic postmasters to take their places, will help to advance Democratic interests and strengthen the Democratic party, the election of any Democrat to office will do the same, and correspondingly depreciate the interests and power of the Republican party. In face of these facts, confessed by the Democratic state central committee, the man must be thoughtless, indeed, who desires the retirement of the Democratic party, and then votes for any man for any office who at all times does all in his power to keep the Democrats in power.

These are important questions that must impress themselves upon every thinking man and which no man can afford to pass by lightly. There has never been a time since the war, when we had the enemies of the country at every hand, when an election was as important to the people and when men who want good government and prosperity should be as careful of their suffrage. It is no time to trifle with the power for good or evil of a freeman's ballot, and we predict that the people of Macon county will, next November, take advantage of the opportunity to make their ballots count all along the line for prosperity and good government.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Marvelous Results.
From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr.
King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottle free at King & Hubbard's drug store. Regular size, 50c and

VANISHING RIOTERS.

They Didn't Wait to Greet the Approaching Militia.

BEING FOREWARNED OF THEIR COMING.

The Officers, Under the Protection of the Military, Proceed to Make Arrests, and Sidetracked Coal Trains are Moved.

CANNELBURG, Ind., June 3.—The National guards of Indiana sent by Gov. Matthews to put a stop to the further interference of coal mine strikers with the passage of coal-laden trains through the city, arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning. The train was sidetracked one mile east of the city limits, and the 450 citizen soldiers disembarked with Gatling gun, bayonets fixed and regimental colors flying. They marched down the railroad track where all the trouble has been, but on entering the city found no army of riotous strikers to oppose their march or give them any work to do. Scattered on and off the track, however, were counted twenty-six strikers, none of whom showed any disposition to make trouble.

Sheriff Leming, who, with Adj.-Gen. Robbins is in command of the militia, read to the handful of strikers the restraining order issued at Washington last Thursday by Judge Heffern.

Friends of the strikers in Indianapolis had forewarned them of the approach of the militia, which accounted for the disappearance of the 200 or 300 former rioters. The sheriff set out to find four men, who had been leaders in the disturbance and for whom he had warrants. After much difficulty he caught W. R. Summers, a justice of the peace for the local township, and Dick Gade, who have been leading the strikers in their lawless interference with the property of the railroads, and John Flynn, a striker. The warrants charge them with riotous conspiracy and contempt of Judge Heffern's mandate.

Immediately after the arrival of the troops the officials of the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern railroad began to move the coal cars which had been sidetracked by the strikers, nearly all of whom remained in their homes, but the women and children belonging to the strikers' families gathered on and along the track, hooting at the railroad men, militia and sheriff while the work of moving the trains was in progress.

The city is now clear of coal cars and the militia are spending the night in camp.

ON THE WARPATH.

The Miners of Jackson County, Ohio, Carrying Things with a High Hand.

JACKSON, O., June 3.—To use a popular expression, the miners of this county have been on the war path for the past two days. They have congregated in large numbers at the various railroad towns in the county. Each crowd has its leaders and keeps the American flag floating in the breeze while they are inspired by a band of music. Dr. W. S. Hoy, of Wellston, O., while he is not employed in any capacity at the mines, is the prime mover and promoter of the aggregate body. Dr. Hoy is a defeated candidate for county coroner. Last evening he marched 1,000 to 1,500 miners from Wellston to Hamden and stopped every train from the limited express down to local freights. All freight trains passing Hamden over the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern during the past twenty-four hours have been called up and seals on cars broken.

Hoy, with 300 of his followers, stopped the east-bound limited express and demanded free transportation to McArthur junction. The conductor refused to signal his train out and Train Dispatcher Scully received orders to have the train sidetracked until the mob could be induced to get off. The doctor did not vacate the coaches until he was told that he was detaining a United States mail train. The Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern officials then agreed to transport 100 of the miners to McArthur and return upon the ground that they should give the company no more trouble.

Freight trains on the Columbus, Hoeking Valley & Toledo were held up and gone through. All coal found was out off and sidetracked.

The crowd assembled at Hamden, has disbanded leaving in charge a patrol committee that holds up every freight train that passes. A half dozen cars of anthracite were set off to-day but finally they were permitted to go, as it was not in competition with soft coal production.

The miners, in their demands to the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, ask that a lump of coal be hauled on the Parkersburg division, but agree to allow two cars a day over the Portsmouth division to be used in firing that company's passenger engines. This the railroad officials have not granted, but have agreed to stop hauling soft coal in competition with the local market.

The miners also have patrol committees at Jackson, Conitton, Wellston and McArthur junction inspecting all freight taken on the various roads leading through those places.

So far the thousands assembled have been peaceable and orderly. Men are continuing to join the crowds assembled at the various towns. However, there is no probability of any violence at the places named except at Chongrean on the Norfolk & Western. It has been reported that this railroad will refuse to stop hauling West Virginia coal, which action will probably incite the crowd to use violent means to bring about what they are demanding. Coal is becoming so scarce that nearly all business is suspended.

The Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern have taken off all passenger trains but one, which carries the United States mail. Most all the freight traffic is stopped and railroads talk of a temporary suspension of all business until there is a change.

A crowd of 300 miners at this place marched out to the Pocahontas mine, a half mile south of Jackson and demanded the suspension of business at once. This was refused and it looked much like bloodshed. Miners with their work tools as weapons threatened the crowd and charged them, but by timely advice of leaders, serious trouble was avoided. A compromise was effected, the miners agreeing to run no more coal after to-morrow. There are now, in the various places in Jackson county, fully 3,000 miners on the alert, ready for any action necessary.

COLORADO'S GOVERNOR

Protects a Fugitive from Arrest and Rescues a Call for Militia.

DENVER, Col., June 3.—Detectives assisted Sheriff Bowers to-day in a search for John Calderwood, president of the Victor miners' union, who came up from Colorado Springs with Gov. Waite at an early hour this morning. When the party arrived Calderwood was taken into a carriage with the governor and conveyed to some secluded place, where, no one but the governor's party knows. Sheriff Bowers arrived about daylight with a warrant for Calderwood's arrest upon the charge of inciting to riot. He had not been arrested in Colorado Springs because then he was the governor's guest.

Detectives shadowed Gov. Waite all day in the hope that they might find their man, but at night Sheriff Bowers had to return without the head official of the miners now in belligerent attitude on Bull Hill.

About the governor's office the populists there declared that the arrest of Calderwood would only add fuel to the hatred of the miners and would make the contest all the more bloodthirsty. Calderwood came under a flag of truce, they declare, and should not be subjected to arrest. But the civil authorities look upon the man not as a belligerent, but as an accomplice in a conspiracy that has already resulted in highway robberies, arson, destruction of property and in murder.

Gov. Waite said to-day that he had taken no official action, and it is not believed that he will declare martial law, a point which is declared to be illegal. Strong pressure has steadily been brought to bear upon him to get him to agree to back up Sheriff Bowers with the militia, a move he is loath to make.

When Gov. Waite reached Palmer he sent the following telegram to Adj.-Gen. Tarsney, thinking Sheriff Bowers had made the above request for troops:

PALESTER, LAKE, June 2. To Gen. Tarsney or Officer in Command at Army.

No national guards must be called out by Hoeking or Kincaid.

(Signed) DAVIS H. WAITE, Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

A Popular Demand for the Arrest of President Calderwood.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., June 3.—Gov. Waite, accompanied by Private Secretary Lorenz and John Calderwood, president of the miners' union at Cripple Creek, arrived in town at 1 o'clock yesterday from Victor. The party was called upon by a United Press reporter, but they all refused to talk until after the conference with the mine owners had been held. On their arrival they called on President Slocum of Colorado college and arranged for a conference with the principal owners which convened in Palmer hall at 3:15 p. m., and at 7 o'clock were still in secret session.

While the conference was in session the crowd without continued to grow larger and more excited. Many threats were made, some favoring arrest and others lynching. The sheriff and a large number of deputies were on hand to protect Gov. Waite and President Calderwood.

At 7:30 p. m., the conference adjourned for supper and then, if never before, did Calderwood learn the feeling of the people in this vicinity. Gov. Waite stepped to the door and addressed the crowd as follows:

GENTLEMEN—I understand there is a great deal of excitement out here and down in your city over the presence of a man named Calderwood. He is here, and came with me. But he has nothing to do with this conference. He was not in the room. He came with me in my private car and at my invitation, and he is my guest. He is going out of this hall with me. He will do with him as you want, but I hope he will not be disturbed.

"Arrest him," cried several voices, and the crowd surged after the governor and Calderwood.

H. G. Lunt, president of the chamber of commerce, immediately addressed the crowd, urging the people to do nothing rash. He was greeted with cries of "Shame!" "Where is justice?" and many oaths, and it was with the greatest difficulty the surging crowd was restrained. Meanwhile Gov. Waite and Calderwood had disappeared. The city remains in a most excited condition and requires the utmost watchfulness on the part of the authorities to maintain order.

The Troops Met With No Resistance.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 3.—Messages to-day from the strikers' district, from Adj.-Gen. Robbins to Gov. Matthews, say that the troops have met with no resistance and that trains have been allowed to move without interference. The adjutant-general said that no more troops would be needed and the gatling gun squad will be sent home to-morrow.

Messages from Col. Ross, second regiment, at Cannelburg, and from Brig.-Gen. McKee, at Shelby, confirm the report. There are fifteen companies on duty. Lieut. Thomas M. de Fosse, of the regular army, inspector of state militia, with rank of major, has been commissioned assistant adjutant-general, with rank of colonel by Gov. Matthews.

A Frivolous Suspension of Freightage.

LEWIS ROCK, Ark., June 4.—Owing to the scarcity of coal, the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway Co. took off two freight trains yesterday. The total freight in the city was reduced to a very small amount.

—Seven bodies had been recovered from the flood at Pueblo, Col., up to Saturday, and many others were reported missing.

—M. Oeslinier-Perier was on Saturday elected president of the French chamber of deputies, receiving 229 votes to 187 for Bourgeois.

—Politico, one of the men who horsewhipped Kaiser, a member of the Austrian Reichsrath, was sentenced in Vienna to four months' imprisonment.

—M. P. Chapman, a wealthy citizen of Chicago, claims that he is solvent of over $47,000 in certified checks. He was to have been married the same night.

—The imports of specie at the port of New York for the week ended Saturday were $1,204,000, of which $1,212,171 was gold and $91,829 silver. For the corresponding week in 1893 the imports were $21,405.

—Joseph Lochner, of St. Louis, shot and instantly killed his young wife at 12:30 o'clock Saturday morning in their rooms at 1293 1/2 Division street. By his own testimony the motive for the crime was jealousy.

—Patrick Eugene Prendergast, the slayer of Mayor Harrison of Chicago, will not be tried as to his sanity on June 11. By an agreement of the attorneys the case goes over until the fall term of court, which opens September 3.

—Carl Seeger, a master painter, with his wife and four children, committed suicide in Berlin Friday night by taking cyanide of potassium. A paper signed by the whole family showed that they had all consented to die by poison.

—A train of passenger and freight cars was going at a terrific rate down the decline into Bloomingdale, N. Y., when the rear coaches became derailed and were totally demolished. The passengers and train hands miraculously escaped death.

—In the Spanish province of Biscay, a priest went to the grave-side of a workman, described as a free-thinker, and forbade the funeral to take place. A fight took place between the friends of the dead man and the supporters of the priest. The police managed to separate the participants and restore order.

—The imports, exclusive of specie, at the port of New York for the week ended on Saturday were $8,782,594, of which $1,218,501 were dry goods, $2,589,993 general merchandise and $4,974,090 were imports from the foreign countries. For the corresponding week in 1893 the imports were $8,472,955, of which $1,854,507 were dry goods and $6,618,448 general merchandise.

—Bringing herring from Norway by steamer direct to Chicago proved to be a profitable venture for the Little Norway steamer, Craggs. It is stated that the owners will realize a profit of $14,000 on her cargo of 8,000 barrels. The cargo of flour and provisions which she will take back to Norway will pay the expenses of the trip.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

(First Session.)

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The first two hours in the senate to-day were passed in a rather lively debate upon Mr. Hill's resolution directing the special senate committee on the Sugar trust investigation to hold open sessions for the taking of testimony. Mr. Hill maintained the correctness of his proposition in a vigorous speech, which was resisted quite as determinedly by the chairman (Senator Gray) and two members of the select committee (Senators Lodge and Allen). Finally the matter went over without action. Then the discussion of the sugar schedule was taken up and was kept up till the adjournment of the senate at 5:15 p. m.

The most interesting and important part of it was the struggle on the part of the two Louisiana senators to ward off the attacks of Mr. Aldrich to place upon them and upon them alone the responsibility for the situation of the sugar bounty. In carrying one of these attacks Mr. Caffery said that the sugar bounty, while temporarily beneficial to the sugar planters of Louisiana, was sure to meet its death.

"By the hands of its beneficiaries," said Mr. Aldrich. He added that no question about its maintenance had been raised anywhere except by the Louisiana senators; that the sugar bounty could not be abolished except by their votes, and that it was a question for them to decide and for them alone.

Before adjournment Mr. Harris expressed the hope that some amicable arrangement for the final disposition of the bill would be arrived at on Monday.

NOTES.

A discussion that might have developed into something important and interesting was narrowly averted in the house to-day. Mr. Goldselt offered a resolution directing the commissioners of the district of Columbia to tell Congress why they had, as reported in the public press, decided to reduce the wages for common labor on public work in the district of Columbia from $1 to $1.5 a day.

Messrs. Cannon and Newlands wanted the scope of the inquiry extended to include labor employed by the government all over the United States, and the condition of labor generally.

Mr. Goldselt declined to modify the resolution, and Mr. Kilgore made the point of no quorum on the vote to second the demand for the previous question.

Mr. Goldselt submitted a motion by Mr. Kilgore to refer the resolution without action to the committee on the affairs of the district of Columbia, and the matter was thus temporarily disposed of.

Several private bills were passed by the house before proceeding to further consider the bill to repeal the state bank tax. During the afternoon Mr. Blair concluded his argument in favor of repeal; Mr. Hall spoke against repeal as an amendment to the independent proposition; Mr. Lester and Mr. Meyer in favor of repeal.

BOTH WERE KILLED.

Fatal Ending of a Street Duel Which May Lead to Another Feud.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 4.—A special from Middleboro, Ky., to the Commercial says: Andy Johnson and James Horn killed each other in a street duel at Wascota, a hamlet ten miles from here, Saturday night. Johnson was a policeman and was attempting to arrest Horn when the shooting occurred. Johnson was one of the most noted characters in southeastern Kentucky. He has killed eight men and two women.

Several years ago, as the citizens of Pineville were peacefully assembling at church one Sunday morning, they were startled by the crack of a Winchester.

It was soon known that Johnson had attacked Lep Hookinson on his way to church, and he kept up the fight until Lep, his brother, Levi, a woman and a little girl were killed. He was so quitted, joined the Methodist church and became an exhorter, but soon returned to his old life. The country is full of Johnsons, and this may lead to another feud.

One to Kentucky to Witness the Trench Run.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The steam yacht Atlanta, owned by George Gould, called for Glasgow yesterday afternoon to witness the yacht races in which the champion American ship, Vigilant, now owned by Mr. Gould, will participate. Mr. Gould and a party of friends will be on the Atlanta.

NO Deception!

We do not believe that it pays to deceive the public by advertising goods at cost or less than cost, or goods at half price, as everybody knows that no merchant could do business by any such method.

Our trade is constantly increasing and we are building on the future by giving the people good honest goods for their money, as people getting good values will return again and bring their friends as well.

German Colonists and the Reapportionment of Africa.

THE CABINET CRISIS IN HUNGARY.

Cause of the Chaos in Bulgaria—Emperor William's Latest Hobby—Ministerial Soldiers—A Liberal Prince—Americans Abroad, Etc.

The Reapportionment of Africa.

BREITENBURG, June 4.—The clamor raised by the colonial enthusiasts over the Anglo-Belgian agreement has caused many to exaggerate the importance which the government attaches to this partial reapportionment of Africa. The colonial partisans with their new demands for more African territory have left the government as cold as they found it.

The semi-official newspapers make only casual references to the agreement, avoiding anything like criticism or commendation. The foreign office is quite willing to let England and France fight out their differences, and especially at the present time when high political events are developing rapidly in Bulgaria and Hungary.

The Crisis in Austria-Hungary.

The news from Sofia and Buda-Pesth is regarded as bearing directly upon the relations of the European powers. Few persons here believe that Count Khuen-Herzberg will be able to form a permanent ministry. Although he voted for the civil marriage bill he also upheld the right of the house of magnates to reject this or any other measure regardless of the majority by which it had been passed in the lower house. He attacked Dr. Weyerle's ministry for introducing reform measures so rapidly, and pleaded repeatedly for legislative moderation on the part of the liberals. The policy with which he enters office will undoubtedly postpone all measures obnoxious to the magnates. This limp liberalism endorses the militant party which enthusiastically supports the policy of the late Dr. Weyerle's cabinet. Among the reforms which will be suspended owing to Weyerle's fall is the improvement of the currency for which Weyerle's presence in the cabinet was the best guarantee.

The Chaos in Bulgaria.

In Bulgaria the present chaos has been caused by Prince Ferdinand's mother, who induced him to oust Stambuloff in the hope of conciliating the czar and obtaining the recognition of the powers.

The few Sofia dispatches which are passed by the censor indicate that the cabinet intend to make formal charges of conspiracy, murder and theft against Stambuloff. The present ministers maintain that he invested millions of state funds in Paris and London for his personal purposes. The conviction here is that Stambuloff's partisans have strong support in the army, upon which the effeminate Coburg has never secured a firm hold, and that civil war is likely. Such a war would result in Russian and Turkish intervention. It is reported that Ferdinand has offered to close with the czar military convention by which a Russian general would be placed in command of the Bulgarian army although neither Austria nor Turkey would agree to such an arrangement.

The Emperor's Latest Hobby.

The wound left in the emperor's check by the operation of Friday is healing rapidly. Saturday he walked in the park of the new palace and gave audiences to several ministers. His latest hobby is to reproduce the military evolutions made by Frederick the Great's troops in battle. He has ordered the king's grenadiers to give an imitation of the battle of Liegnitz. The Austrians will carry yellow flags in this sham battle to distinguish them from the grenadiers who will represent the Pruss

THE CABINET CRISIS IN HUNGARY.

Cause of the Chaos in Bulgaria—Emperor William's Latest Hobby—Ministries Soldiers—A Liberal Prince —Americans Abroad, Etc.

The Reapportionment of Africa.
BERLIN, June 4.—The clamor raised by the colonial enthusiasts over the Anglo-Belgian agreement has caused many to exaggerate the importance which the government attaches to this partial reapportionment of Africa.
The colonial partisans with their new de mands for more African territory have left the government as cold as they found it.

The semi-official newspapers make only casual references to the agreement avoiding anything like criticism or commendation. The foreign office is quite willing to let England and France fight out their differences and especially at the present time when high political events are developing rapidly in Bulgaria and Hungary.

The Crisis in Austria-Hungary.
The news from Sofia and Buda-Pesth is regarded as bearing directly upon the relations of the European powers.
Few persons here believe that Count Klauer's ministry will be able to form a permanent ministry. Although he voted for the civil marriage bill he also upheld the right of the house of magnates to reject this or any other measure regardless of the majority by which it had been passed in the lower house. He attacked Dr. Wekerle's policy for introducing reform measures so rapidly, and pleaded repeatedly for legislative moderation on the part of the liberals. The policy with which he enters office will undoubtedly postpone all measures obnoxious to the magnates. This limp liberalism en-rages the militant party which enthusiastically supports the policy of the late Dr. Wekerle's cabinet. Among the reforms which will be suspended owing to Wekerle's fall is the improvement of the currency for which Wekerle's presence in the cabinet was the best guarantee.

The most serious feature of the crisis is that the anti-Austrian feeling in Hungary has been greatly intensified, and that Italy has been made apprehensive of a change in Austria's policy toward the Vatican. Should the imperial government give moral support to the refractory magnates, with a clear understanding with the holy see estrangement from Italy would be the immediate result. The consequent strain upon the triple alliance would probably break the bonds. Emperor Francis-Joseph went to Buda-Pesth last evening. Unless he makes terms with Wekerle the feud between the crown and the people will have grave consequences.

The Chaos in Bulgaria.
In Bulgaria the present chaos has been caused by Prince Ferdinand's mother who induced him to oust Stambuloff in the hope of conciliating the czar and obtaining the recognition of the powers.
The Sofia dispatches which are passed by the censor indicate that the cabinet intend to make formal charges of conspiracy, murder and theft against Stambuloff. The present ministers maintain that he invested millions of state funds in Paris and London for his personal purposes. The conviction here is that Stambuloff's partisans have strong support in the army, upon which the effeminate Coburger has never secured a firm hold, and that civil war is likely. Such a war would result in Russian and Turkish interference. It is reported that Ferdinand has offered to cede to the czar a military convention by which a Russian general would be placed in command of the Bulgarian army although neither Austria nor Turkey would agree to such an arrangement.

The Emperor's Latest Hobby.
The wound left in the emperor's check by the operation of Friday is healing rapidly. Saturday he walked in the park of the new palace and gave audiences to several ministers. His latest hobby is to reproduce the military evolutions made by Frederick the Great's troops in battle. He has ordered the king's grenadiers to give an imitation of the battle of Liegnitz.
The Austrians will carry yellow flags in this sham battle to distinguish them from the grenadiers who will represent the Prussians. Prince George of Saxony, Gen. Count Waldersee and other conspicuous soldiers have been invited to see the performance.

Ministries Soldiers.
The three young imperial princes on parade with their regiments are a favorite spectacle now with the people of Potsdam and Berlin. They drill daily with a company of the first guards.
Last Tuesday they took part in the grand review on the Tempelhof field, and, joined in the march past the emperor. They were a comical sight as they trotted along, sword in hand, trying to keep even with the big foot guardsmen. At the end of the final charge they were quite breathless. At the parade in Potsdam on Thursday the two elder boys marched beside the first line in fair form, although the younger often lost step and had to break into a trot to get back in place.
The emperor seemed to be delighted with the performance.

The Turpin Scandal.
The Turpin scandal in Paris is not taken seriously here. The wonderful explosive which Turpin was supposed to have invented and sold to the German government had never been heard of in the Berlin war office before it was made an issue in the chamber of deputies. The whole sensation is a result of the majority of votes.

Prince Ludwig, heir-apparent to the Bavarian throne, has made another notable liberal speech. His text was the action of the Bavarian lower house in rejecting the proposal to appropriate 1,000,000 marks to the initial work of cutting the Danube-Main canal. "I always work for the public welfare," he said. "I feel that the old laws and customs are no longer suited to the necessities of the day, and must be ab-rogated. I mean to do my utmost in favor of progress, although I am conscious that I can do nothing without the sanction of the people. I shall always be happy in feeling that I have their support."

Enemies of Emperor William think these democratic utterances are intended for his ears.
The Catholic Congress.
The Catholic congress which will meet in Cologne late in August will consider mainly questions raised by the labor movement. Invitations to attend it have been sent to many English and American Catholics.
The Agrarian Conference.
The agrarian conference adjourned Saturday, but Herr von Heyden, minister of agriculture, reserved the right to reopen it, and to summon experts to recommend practical proposals on which the government could base a plan of relief. The statistics submission to the conference showed that Prussia has entailed estates covering 1,833, 753 hectares, and producing a net revenue of 23,992,000 marks annually.
The Imperial Currency Commission.
The imperial currency commission heard Saturday the last of the expert testimony as to the production of the precious metals. Several members recommended that the commission's report be made as soon as possible, since no immediate practical results could be expected from debates. Probably the commission will close its work without a single member having changed his position in the conflict of the standards. The government shows no disposition to amend the currency laws and is confirmed in its inactivity by the continued influx of gold in large quantities.

Americans Abroad.
The widow and son of the late Consul-General Edwards have gone to Potsdam for the summer.
Consul-General Crawford's departure from St. Petersburg was noted with many complimentary paragraphs in the Russian press. Just before leaving the city Mr. Crawford was presented with a magnificent silver tea service of the old Russian style.
Mrs. Andrew D. White and her daughter have left Dresden to join United States Minister White in St.
Petersburg.
The American colony had many representatives at the great spring parade on the Tempelhof field. The embassy had but a small number of police passes for carriages at its disposal and scores of applicants had to go away empty handed.
Trichina, Cholera, Wild Horses and Mad Dogs.
More than 100 persons have been poisoned by trichinae in pork in Bischof-swarda, Saxony. Several of them have died.
Cholera is epidemic in Schillin, east Prussia. Two persons have died since Wednesday. The disease was brought over from Russia, and consequently the sanitary officials on the frontier have been ordered to keep a closer watch over persons crossing the border.
A stampede of horses caused a general panic at the Neunkirchen fair on Friday. Three horses ran into a merry-ground, killing three children and wounding ten others.
Last week a mad dog bit six persons in Tanager. Two of the six have died of hydrophobia and the others are under treatment.

THE INSATIATE MISSOURI

Engulphing the Prosperous Little City of Winthrop, Mo., in its Turgid Channel.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 3.—As a direct result of the high water in the Missouri river, which will not begin to recede for some time, the once prosperous village of Winthrop, thirty miles south of St. Joseph on the Rock Island, Hannibal & St. Joseph, Missouri Pacific and Kansas City, St. Joe & Council Bluffs railroads, will soon be wiped off the face of the earth.
The Missouri river when it first began its spring rise this year, began cutting the bank at the edge of the town and adjoins it to it, and to-day half the place has melted into the river, together with half a dozen farms of 160 acres each. The channel of the river was a half mile west of Winthrop last year, but to-day that channel is a sand bar and the new channel occupies what was once the main street of the village.
Assisted by the citizens, the railroad companies have been spending thousands of dollars in an effort to stop the cutting of the river, but the efforts have been in vain, and the work has been given up. The water is now within a few rods of the tracks of the four companies which run parallel to each other at that point, and is rapidly eating its way into the railroad right of way, and all four companies are preparing to abandon their roadbeds and enter Atchison from a point farther north.
In such an event the $100,000 railroad bridge connecting Winthrop and Atchison will be abandoned. Winthrop, which was a town of 1,500 people, has already lost most of its population, and as the houses cannot be sold they are being torn down and carried into the country. The work of demolition of the Methodist church, a structure which cost $10,000 a year ago, is now going on, it having been sold to a farmer for $50. Farmers who owned farms valued at $3,000 and $10,000 a month ago are without an acre of ground to-day.
